Reynold's Dr. Erica Holmes presented with College Dean Award

RICHMOND, Va. (November 16, 2007) – J. Sargeant Reynolds Community College School of Business Dean Dr. Erica Holmes was awarded the College Dean Award by the International Society of Business Disciplines. This coveted award seeks to honor business school deans who have gone above and beyond the typical expectations of such a position.

The College Dean Award recipient must demonstrate his or her ability to support multiple constituencies of chairs, faculty, students and other administrators. The International Society of Business Disciplines provides a research and scholarship outlet for the academic community at large. The Society offers journals, conferences and research activities that demonstrate leadership in applied and theoretical business research.

J. Sargeant Reynolds Community College is the third largest college in the Virginia Community College System. Reynolds offers a variety of programs and services to the residents of the City of Richmond and the counties of Hanover, Henrico, Goochland, Louisa and Powhatan. The college operates three comprehensive campuses located in rural, urban and suburban settings and serves over 18,000 credit students. The Community College Workforce Alliance provides training to an additional 14,000 non-credit students each year. Additional information is available at the College's website: www.reynolds.edu.
